RECORD OF INVESTIGATION.

At frequent intervals during the period of record the 4 accused named Wong Kiu Zeh 'ts (劉子才), Koh Tuh Sai (柯徒才), Chien Zung (錢聰) and Wong Ah Sz (吳阿嫂) have been removed from the station cells to the detective office and further questioned by the undersigned, C.D.S.120 and D.S.I. Golder attached to the Special Branch, but no further information was obtained from the accused as to how they came to be in possession of the Communistic Literature other than mentioned in Diary No.1 of this report.

Enquiries were made by members of the Special Branch at the Public Safety Bureau, and it was learned that the 3rd accused Chien Zung and the 4th accused Wong Ah Sz are both agents of Han Lu Hao, employed by the Public Safety Bureau.

The 1st accused Wong Kiu Zeh 'ts and the 2nd accused Koh Tuh Sai, are also alleged to be working for Han but make their reports through the medium of the 3rd and 4th accused.

Date December 15, 1934.

Subject (in full) Arrest of Wong Kiu Lek Ts (王九烈) and three other alleged communist suspects in Kassing Road District on December 8, 1934.

Made ~~55~~ and Forwarded by D. A. Ross

In connection with the attached file on the above subject, Mr. Yue Ding ih, Nanking Political Agent in Shanghai, came to this office on December 14, 1934, and informed the undersigned that the four communist suspects named Wong Kiu Zeh Ts (王九哲) et al arrested on December 3, 1934, in the Kashung Road District are informers in the employ of the Special Branch of the local Public Safety Bureau. These individuals, in order to cloak their activities, are known to the Chinese Authorities to be in touch with certain communist elements from whom they obtain from time to time quantities of communist literature ostensibly for the purpose of distribution. It is the policy of the local Chinese authorities, in view of any forthcoming Red anniversary, to secure as much communist literature as possible either for intelligence purposes or for destruction in order to prevent it from being disseminated.

In conclusion, Mr. Yue expresses the desire that the Municipal Police in this particular case will raise no objection at the next hearing on December 17 when an application for the extradition of the aforementioned suspects will be made by the Chinese Authorities.

Accused

- 1) Wong Kiu Zeh Ts (黃九才), aged 20, native of Yangchow, residing at No.45 Lai Yu Li (黎喜里) off Wuchow Rd.
- 2) Koh Tuh Sai (高徒山), " 22, " " " " No.46 " " " "
- 3) Chien Zung (錢成) alias Ling Ming Sung (林明生), aged 21, native of Yangchow, residing at No. 143 Chung Yang Li (忠陽里) off Wuchow Road.
- 4) Wong Ah Sz (王阿四) alias Ting Hoong Chuen (丁洪春), aged 29, native of Nanking, residing at No.235 Urga Road.

1st Accused WONG KIU ZEH TS

Evidence Against

At the time of his arrest on 8.12.34, the 1st accused was in the act of handing to the 2nd accused Koh Tuh Sai a bundle which upon examination was found to contain about 1,200 copies of communist handbills of different kinds dealing with the "Resistance of Japan in the North", "The Anniversary of the Canton Uprising dated December 1", "Opposition to the 5th Anti-Communist Campaign of the Kuomintang", "Issue No.72 of the Young Men's Truth Paper" dated November 20 dealing with the recent victories of the Chinese Red Army and the oppression of the ricsha coolie by the S.M.C. This literature according to the 1st accused was placed in his room on the night of 7th December by Chien Zung, 3rd accused. The 1st accused's father on seeing the nature of the contents of the bundle told his son to remove it. The son went in search of Chien Zung but was unable to find him and as a result asked the 2nd accused who was acquainted with Chien Zung, to remove the literature and hand it back to the Chien Zung. It was when the bundle was being handed over that the two were arrested. The 1st accused has so far failed to give a reason why Chien Zung should put such literature in his room and has not given any idea to the police how long this kind of thing has been going on. It is also of interest to note that when Wong Kiu Zeh Ts' room was searched a small quantity of communist literature was found therein.

Evidence For

There is no evidence that the 1st accused has ever taken part in pro-communist activity nor any proof that at the time of his arrest he was a member of the Communist Party. The mere possession of the few books found in his room would not substantiate a charge of being an active communist.

2nd Accused KOH TUH SAI

Evidence Against

At the time the 2nd accused was arrested he was actually in possession of a bundle containing a large number of communistic pamphlets which had a few seconds before been handed over to him by Wong Kiu Zeh Ts, 1st accused. He has admitted to the police and the Court that the literature found in his possession was given to him by the 1st accused who informed him that it had been brought to his house by the 3rd accused Chien Zung. Further the 2nd accused stated that it was his intention to return the literature to Chien Zung but he has offered no reason why the literature should be given back to Chien Zung, if that person, as is claimed, is an agent of the man named Han Lu Hao, an employee of the Shanghai Public Safety Bureau. The piece of paper found in the possession of Koh Tuh Sai bearing the name and telephone number of Han Lu Hao at the Public Safety Bureau was not written by that individual but most probably by the 2nd accused from information supplied to him by the 3rd or 4th accused.

Evidence Against

The 3rd accused has admitted having taken the literature to the home of the 1st accused but states that he did not give instructions that it should be handed over the 2nd accused. He claimed that the literature was handed to him by the 4th accused Wong Ah Sa alias Ting Hoong Chuen with instructions to place it in the home of the 1st accused, but that he did not know for what purpose the literature was intended.

Evidence For

There is no evidence that the 2nd accused has been concerned in the propagation of communism. There is ample evidence from the 1st and 3rd accused to show that it was not the intention of the 2nd accused either to keep the literature found in his possession nor was it his intention to distribute it. The paper found in his possession shows to a certain extent that he was in contact with an agent of the Shanghai Public Safety Bureau named Han Lu Hao and apparently that he was being employed in the detection of communists. Although a search was made of the home of the 2nd accused there was nothing of an incriminating nature found.

3rd Accused CHIEN ZUNG alias LING MING SUNG

Evidence For

The accused openly admitted that he took the literature to the home of the 1st accused and led Police to the home of the 4th accused from whom he obtained the literature and where a certain quantity of communist literature was seized. Further the accused has stated that he is employed as a secret agent or "second" by Han Lu Hao of the Public Safety Bureau which declaration has been substantiated by information obtained from the Public Safety Bureau.

4th Accused WONG AH SZ alias TING HOONG CHUEN

Evidence Against

Chien Zung 3rd accused when arrested by Police at 9 p.m. 8.12.34 was questioned with regard to the literature found in the possession of the 1st and 2nd accused at the time of their arrest. He stated that he had obtained the literature from one Wong Ah Sz alias Ting Hoong Chuen who resided at No. 235 Urga Road. The police raided this address and there arrested the 4th accused as named. A search of the room occupied by the man revealed a quantity of communist literature similar in nature to that seized from the 1st and 2nd accused. Wong Ah Sz was closely questioned and claimed that he obtained the literature found in his house and that handed over to Chien Zung on 7.12.34 for disposal in Wong Kiu Zeh Ts' house from a Cantonese, a member of the Communist Party. He admitted under interrogation that the Cantonese often visits him at his home but that he has nothing to do with his (Wong's) political activity. He admitted having been a member of the Communist Party until January 1934, when he surrendered to the local Bureau of Public Safety. There is very little doubt that Wong Ah Sz 4th accused is still a member of the Communist Party. Despite the fact that he denies connection with the Communist Party he has refused so far to state for what reason he was in possession of the literature, upon which the prosecution of the four persons in custody is being based.

Evidence For

There appears to be very little in defence of Wong Ah Sz. He admits that he obtained the literature found in his room and that seized from the 1st and 2nd accused from a member of the Communist Party but denies that he is a member.

COMMENT

Enquiries made of the Chinese Authorities reveal that the 3rd accused Chien Zung and the 4th accused Wong Ah Sz are both agents of Han Lu Hao employed in the Public Safety Bureau and that he is in direct contact with them. The 1st accused Wong Kiu Zeh Ts and the 2nd accused Koh Tuh Sai are also alleged to be working for Han but make their report, etc. through the 3rd and 4th accused. All the accused subsequent to their arrest made statements which despite the fact that they were corroborative in general show points which are not consistent with fact. All have in one way or another stated that they are agents of the Public Safety Bureau employed in the detection of communist activity but they have failed to show the reason why they were jointly in possession of or concerned with the literature, seized as the result of their arrest. Had they been in possession of a few handbills such as are obtained for information purposes the matter would not have looked too much like a conspiracy but the quantity actually found in their possession precludes the possibility that it was intended for intelligence purposes. Further none of the accused are prepared to state how long they have been in the employ of Han Lu Hao or whether they have brought about the arrest of communist on previous occasions.

Han Lu Hao alias Kuang Zeu Nyi as mentioned in Files D.5682 and 5711, appears to be given to irregular conduct in the matter of obtaining evidence against political offenders. Taking this circumstance into consideration there is every possibility that the four men in custody being employees of Han Lu Hao's, were in the act of planting evidence on some individual with the intention of later causing his arrest.

SECRET (
 Mr. Yeu Ding Ih, Nanking Political Agent in Shanghai, attended this office on the afternoon of December 14 when he stated in connection with his case that there was no intention on the part of the four accused to encompass the arrest of any person with the aid of the literature seized in their possession. He claimed that the literature had been obtained by the 4th accused for the purpose of passing on to the Public Safety Bureau. Relative to the large quantity of literature seized in connection with this case, Mr. Yeu stated that the 4th accused was in contact with the lower organs of the Communist Party and in posing as a member of the Communist Party had obtained the literature for distribution. In view of this it was necessary for the 4th accused to dispose of the whole lot. It was his efforts, stated Mr. Yeu, in forwarding the literature to his employer which caused the arrest of himself and the other three.

REPORT

Date December 12, 1934.

Subject (in full) Reference the attached file relative to the arrest of four persons on charges of Communist activity - Kashung Road Station.
Made by D. S. I. Golder Forwarded by OBK D.

A visit was paid to Kashung Road Station by the undersigned at 2.30 p.m. on December 11, 1934, when the four persons taken into custody on 8-12-34 were interrogated.

It was learned that the 1st accused Wong Kiu Zeh 是 (黃九子), a wharf coolie was known to and friendly with the 2nd accused Koh Tuh Sai (高徒四) whom he met some 6 years ago at a time when the 1st accused was working as a coolie on one of the Butterfield & Swire's vessels (name unknown).

The 1st accused stated that he had never taken part in communist activity and could offer no reason why Chien Zung (3rd ACCUSED) should have taken communistic literature to his room on 7-12-34. The 2nd accused Koh Tuh Sai stated that he first met Chien Zung (3rd ACCUSED) on the Wayside Wharf about 2 months ago and through him was introduced to Han Lu Hao (韓魯侯), an agent of the Public Safety Bureau, who was employed in the investigation of communist matters. Han Lu Hao told Chien Zung and Koh Tuh Sai that should they hear anything of communist members or bases they could telephone him at the Public Safety Bureau. The 4th accused Wong Ah Sz (王阿四) alias Ting Hoong Chuen (丁鴻君) claimed that he was a member of the Communist Party until January of this year when he surrendered to the local Public Safety Bureau. Immediately after his submission had been accepted he was told to work for the government in the capacity of an unpaid agent but did no active work until he was introduced to Han Lu Hao of the Public Safety Bureau some two months ago.

Regarding the literature found in the possession of the 1st and 2nd accused on 8-12-34, investigation shows that the 4th accused Wong Ah Sz alias Ting Hoong Chuen whilst in his room on December 7, 1934 was visited by a Cantonese, whose name he professes not to know. The Cantonese brought with him a bundle of Communistic literature which he left with the 4th accused, which person despite the fact that he claims to be an agent of Han Lu Hao did not telephone to his employer or attempt to follow the Cantonese. After the Southerner had left, Wong Ah Sz telephoned to Han Lu Hao and informed him of the literature; he was instructed to place it in the home of Wong Kiu Zeh Ts, 1st accused.

Not knowing the address of the 1st accused, Wong Ah Sz got into touch with Chien Zung (3rd ACCUSED) who carried out Han Lu Hao's instructions. Chien Zung claims that it was Han Lu Hao's intention to return the literature to the government on the day following the arrest of the four above mentioned persons.

All the accused are lying to save themselves and it is suspected that Koh Tuh Sai, Chien Zung and Wong Ah Sz either with or without the connivance of Han Lu Hao were conspiring to bring about the arrest of Wong Kiu Zeh Ts, possibly over some private quarrel or merely to obtain (blood) money from Han through the Public Safety Bureau.

Enquiries regarding Han Lu Hao show that the name is an alias of Kaung Zeu Nyi (康壽年), an agent of the Public Safety Bureau, who has come to the notice of the S.M.P. in connection with the arrest of communist suspects on previous occasions. The tactics used by Han Lu Hao in the arrest of the four persons by Kashring Road Station though not similar in detail are so in effect as those used by him under the name Kaung Zeu Nyi in bringing about the arrest of Tsang Vung Lih alias Tsang Tsung Iwo who was arrested at 2.30 p.m. 13-2-34 (File No. D.5682) and who was subsequently released on security there being a grave doubt as to the authenticity of the documents allegedly found in his possession. A similar case is that of the arrest of Iung Pao Kung (龍寶公) who was arrested on North Honan Road at 7.40 p.m. March 5, 1934 by two agents of the Public Safety Bureau who tried to force the accused into a waiting motor-car with the intention of removing him to Chinese controlled territory. (File No. D. 5711) In this case the accused was handed over, nevertheless the actions of the representatives of the Public Safety Bureau was most irregular. Kuang's name was mentioned in connection with this case.
